

Attend a consultation

Quickstart for service users

1

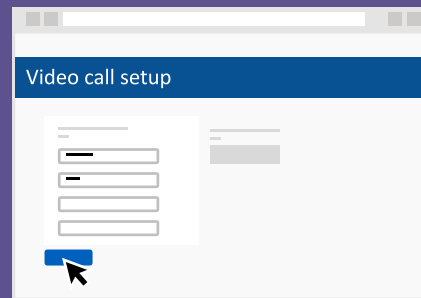

If you have received a waiting-area link via email, text message, or a letter, open the link

Alternatively, go to the entry point on the service's website and select the Start video call button

2

Follow the on-screen prompts and enter your details

3

Accept the Terms and policies and select Enter Waiting Area

Read any messages from the service.
Select Info to see any messages.

4

Your service provider arrives and the consultation begins

